WALKING TOUR & OTHER THINGS TO DO IN FREDERICKSBURG

The Roundup 30 hotel is conveniently located just a short block from Main Street where many of the area's attractions are located. Just turn right from the hotel parking lot onto US 87 (S. Washington ST.) and go to the traffic light on Main Street (US 290). Most of the shopping and attractions are located to the left on Main Street. The Fredericksburg Brewing Company, a brew pub and restaurant, is located at 245 East Main Street, in the second block West (left) from Washington Street.

Among the attractions are:

1. The National Museum of the Pacific War is located on the northwest corner of Washington and Main. If you are at all interested in the history of World War II, this is a must. The museum complex includes the Admiral Nimitz Museum. A native of Fredericksburg, Chester Nimitz was Commander of the Pacific Fleet during the war. Allow at least two hours for your visit to this fabulous exhibition.
2. The Vereins Kirche (Society Church) museum is located four blocks west of Washington Street, at Market Square on the north side of Main Street. This is a replica of a church built in 1847. Admission to the Vereins Kirche includes admission to the Pioneer Museum which is another three blocks west on the south side of Main Street.
3. The Pioneer Museum, located at 309 West Main Street, features a pioneer home, general store, blacksmith shop, and more.

Additional information about these, and other, attractions can be found at the Fredericksburg Chamber of Commerce Visitors Center located on East Austin Street and Lincoln Street. This is one block north of Main Street and one block west of Washington.

Another attraction, not really within walking distance of the Fredericksburg Inn, is the Street of Dreams. This seller of vintage automobiles is located at 156 FM 2093. Their offerings are primarily American cars from the 1950s and 60s, with some trucks and motor cycles thrown in.

If interested, you can reach the Street of Dreams by turning left onto US 87 (S. Washington Street) as you leave the hotel parking lot. Proceed to Highway Street (about 0.6 mile) and turn right. Highway Street will end when you reach SR 16 (Adams Street). Turn left and proceed for 1.1 miles to FM 2093. Turn right on FM 2093. Street of Dreams will be on the right.
